

PRESS RELEASE – 25th February 2011

Lark in the Park Charitable Trust are honoured to have Stephen Lloyd MP join the charity as another Patron. He is a very kind and caring person who has a great interest in children and young adults with special needs and will be a great asset to the charity. Stephen Lloyd MP said, “It was a real privilege to be asked by Lark in the Park to become a Patron. The charity has been going for well over 10 years and has risen in excess of £100,000 for children with special needs. Steve Reynolds the founder is a man with a mission – to transform the lives of others. I can sign up to that!”

Lark in the Park is dedicated to supplying respite holidays and many children over the years have benefited. Not only does it give the children a break, but also allows the parents and carers a chance to recharge their batteries. Lark in the Park, a registered charity, works in conjunction with Social Services and other organisations, to provide the holidays. In addition to this Lark in the Park holds an annual Christmas Party for up to 150 children and young people with special needs, and also runs the Hailsham Carnival. We are very grateful to sponsorship from Asda for these events.
